

Beginning September 1, 2010 the board is updating it's list of out-of state Board-recognized schools. This means that every out of state school will be required to submit an application for Board approval. Click on the link to access the application.